In Memorium: Mary Trueman (1915-2008)

Born in England, Mary Trueman grew up as an accomplished pianist; and she played for many singers at recitals and music festivals even before receiving formal training. Ms. Trueman attained degrees with Honors in French & German Language & Literature from the University of Birmingham in Birmingham, England. She was a Licentiate of The London Royal Academy of Music in England in Piano Accompaniment, and she earned a Master's degree in Vocal Pedagogy from the Birmingham School of Music.

Following a rich musical performance and teaching career in the UK along with residency in Nancy, France during World War II, Trueman moved to Houston, Texas, in the early 1980s to be closer to her daughter. While in Houston, she developed her own private voice studio and began teaching French, German, Latin, and Spanish classes at St. Pius Catholic College Preparatory High School in Houston. Shortly thereafter, she began teaching voice at Texas Southern University; and it wasn't long before she was invited to teach Diction and Vocal Repertoire classes in French and German at Rice University.

Ms. Trueman believed singers should put forth constant effort towards technical advancement in order to achieve vocal freedom and discover the exuberance of singing. She was a firm believer in the close examination of poetry, speaking the poem aloud to note the rhythm of the words, and that excellence in a singer's interpretation is enhanced and validated by a deep understanding and appreciation of the successive literary movements which influenced the poets' approach to life and art.

Mary Trueman leaves behind a true legacy in her devoted students whom she encouraged and worked relentlessly to help cultivate a deep appreciation for the art song repertoire. It is for these reasons that Mary Trueman is the motivating force and inspiration behind The Art Song Preservation Society, and the beloved namesake of this competition.
Blair Boone-Migura
Founder, President, Executive Director of The Art Song Preservation Society

Blair began his study of voice and piano in Houston before moving to pursue his Bachelor’s in Voice Performance (honors) and Master’s in French Language, Literature and Culture at Syracuse University. He went on to study voice and piano at the Strasbourg Conservatory of Music in France. He also holds a second Master's degree in Vocal Pedagogy from Westminster Choir College in Princeton where he graduated with honorary distinction.

In addition to coaching singer's privately in the French vocal repertoire, Blair currently teaches French language at Queensborough College. After accumulating over ten years of project management and client relationship management experience, Blair has also managed to transition into an executive role. He has managed a number of strategic relationships at major firms, publishing and advertising companies, including Yahoo!, MetroSource Publishing, and CIBT, Inc.. He is also a published film and music critic having interviewed a wide range of artists from Grammy-nominated jazz pianist Fred Hersch to Grammy Award-winning Haitian-American singer and producer Wyclef Jean for various publications. In May 2013, Blair assisted the celebrated piano collaborator Dalton Baldwin, along with two of French song's most accomplished sopranos Elly Ameling and Rosemarie Landry, and several other highly notable adjudicators of distinction in the development and execution of the Positively Poulenc Vocal Competition and Recital at the Bruno Walter Auditorium in NYC.

Blair founded ASPS because of his concern and deep interest in promoting this declining area of vocal literature and in honor of his mentor of twenty-two years, master French and German song specialist, Mary Trueman (1915-2008). Blair studied voice with Mary Trueman (Rice University), JoElyn Walkefied-Wright (Syracuse University), Elisabeth Schroeder (The Strasbourg Conservatory of Music) and Elem Eley (Westminster Choir College), and has sung in master classes with Oren Brown (The Juilliard School) and Phyllis Curtain (Yale University). Blair has coached with Metropolitan Opera mezzo-soprano Barbara Smith Conrad and internationally acclaimed specialist of the French vocal repertoire, Thomas Grubb (The Juilliard School). Blair also studied piano accompaniment with Mary Trueman, Steve Heyman (Syracuse University), and continues to study piano privately with Edward Nemirovsky in NYC.

Art Song Vocal Competition Judge: Thomas Grubb

Mr. Grubb, presently on the faculty of the Juilliard School, taught previously at the Manhattan School of Music, the Curtis Institute, the Academy of Vocal Arts and New York University. He also coached many productions for both New York City Opera and Houston Grand Opera, and served as adjudicator for the Metropolitan Opera Guild Auditions, the International Paris Voice Competition and the Fulbright Commission. Grubb has given master classes throughout the USA, in Taiwan, Korea, Lithuania, Germany and France. As pianist, he assisted Pierre Bernac in his master classes, collaborated with Renée Fleming, Benita Valente, Eleanor Steber, Elly Ameling, Dawn Upshaw and Maurice André, and recorded for both the Orion and Lyrachord labels.

In addition to his primary mentor Pierre Bernac, Grubb’s most influential piano teachers were Magda Tagliaferro, with whom he studied in Paris for three years; as well as Dora Zaslavsky and Artur Balsam, with whom he studied at the Manhattan School of Music where he earned his Master of Music degree in Applied Piano in 1966. In 1962, Mr. Grubb received a Master of Arts degree in French Literature from Yale University Graduate School and in 1960 his Bachelor of Arts in French and Piano from the University of Rochester and the Eastman School of Music. In May of 2002 the Ministry of Culture of the French decorated Mr. Grubb as Chevalier dans l’Ordre des Arts et des Lettres for his advancement of French culture throughout the world.

Grubb continues to teach at the Juilliard School and maintains a private studio on the Upper West Side of Manhattan not far from Lincoln Center where he has resided since 1974. Mr. Grubb was born in Bridgehampton, New York.
Thomas Muraco has earned great accolades through a combination of technical virtuosity, tonal beauty, and a unique understanding of the underlying poetry of music. His performances in major concert halls throughout the United States, Canada, Central America, Europe, and Asia reflect his command of a repertoire remarkable for its complete range of musical styles, periods and forms.

Muraco has partnered among others such singers as Adele Addison, John Aler, Martina Arroyo, Arleen Auger, Phyllis Curtin, Faith Esham, Maureen Forrester, Denyce Graves, Ben Heppner, Sumi Jo, Roberta Peters, Hermann Prey, Twyla Robinson, Jennie Tourel, Benita Valente and Dolora Zajick. Highlights of his career include appearances at The White House, the Library of Congress, the Aspen, Banff, Bermuda, Casals, Cincinnati May and Ravinia Festivals, and on recital series at New York's major concert halls and at museums, universities and cultural centers throughout the US, Europe and Asia.

In addition to his busy performing schedule, Muraco has taught at the Cleveland Institute of Music, the State University of New York at Stony Brook, and is presently on the faculty of the Manhattan School of Music. There he trains pianists in the art of accompanying and coaching, as well as singers in all aspects of the art. He has taught master classes for pianists and singers at the Aspen and Banff Music Festivals and the St. Louis Conservatory. In such master classes he emphasizes the unique relationship of poetry and music in all aspects of the vocal repertoire, bringing to bear his extensive knowledge of languages French, Italian, German and Portuguese among others. Influential teachers in Thomas Muraco's own training include Brooks Smith at the Eastman School of Music, from which he graduated with distinction, and Jeaneane Dowis at the Aspen Festival and in NYC, and John Nelson in conducting.

Often asked to judge competitions such as the Metropolitan Opera National Council Auditions, Mr. Muraco has been the chairman of the jury of the annual international vocal competition held in Vivonne, France in October each year, “De Vive Voix.” Mr. Muraco had the honor of assisting in the preparation of performances and a recording of La Bohème under the direction of Leonard Bernstein.
Benita Valente is a distinguished American soprano whose long career has encompassed the operatic stage as well as performance of lieder, chamber music, and oratorio. She is especially lauded for her interpretations of Mozart and Handel, and her exceptional performances in various Verdi roles. The New York Times once referred to her "as gifted a singer as we have today, worldwide." Born in California, she became a private pupil of Lotte Lehmann at the age of 18. She continued her studies with Lehmann at the Music Academy of the West in Santa Barbara. In 1955 she won a scholarship to the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, where she studied with Martial Singer.

In October 1960 she made her New York concert debut at the New School for Social Research. After winning the Metropolitan Opera Auditions in 1960, years later in 1968 she went on to pursue further studies with Margaret Harshaw and soon established herself as a versatile recitalist, soloist with orchestra, and opera singer. Her interpretation of Pamina was especially well-received, and it was in that role that she made her long-awaited Metropolitan Opera debut in New York in 1973. She continued to sing with the MET through to 1993. Valente received a Grammy Award for her recording of Schoenberg's Quartet No.2 and a Grammy nomination for her recording of Haydn's Seven Last Words of Christ.

Benita Valente was the 1999 Recipient of Chamber Music America's Highest Award: The Richard J. Bogomolny National Service Award, the first vocalist to receive the award in its twenty-year history. Ms. Valente lives in Philadelphia with her husband, bassoonist Anthony Checchia. Her son, also based in Philadelphia, is an accomplished photographer and artist. Increasingly, she has devoted her time to teaching vocal master classes and as an adjudicator. Increasingly, she has devoted her time to teaching vocal master classes. She has taught at the Marlboro Music School and Festival in Marlboro, Vermont; Cincinnati Conservatory program in Lucca, Italy; the Metropolitan Opera Lindemann Young Artists Development Program; the Stearns Institute for Young Artists at Ravinia and the Young Artist Program of the National Arts Centre's Summer Music Institute in Ottawa.

About Us

Our Mission
The Art Song Preservation Society of New York (ASPS) is a nonprofit arts organization dedicated to preserving, revitalizing, and promoting the art song repertoire and the art song recital. We do this by providing a variety of enriching and engaging programs, services, and events that promote the education and performance of classical vocal concert repertoire.

What Is Art Song?
An art song is a music composition for voice and instrumental accompaniment. The text of these songs is derived from poetry resulting in the unification of two art forms: the poetic text and music. This makes the art song a dual art and one of the greatest (albeit oftentimes most neglected) gifts in the realm of classical music. When the ideal proportions are met – the heartfelt piano accompaniment, the exquisite voice, and the endearing poetry – one cannot help but be affected by it. It touches the mind. It touches the soul. It touches humanity.

What We Do
The Art Song Preservation Society serves the New York City area by creating opportunities for education and performance in the genre of classical art song vocal literature to classical singers, piano collaborators, and art song aficionados. Our organization also generates exposure for emerging and established composers of art song to their key public – singers, teachers, accompanists, and enthusiasts!

With the financial support of grants and generous patrons of the arts, we offer opportunities for artistic development such as private and group voice lessons, workshops, a master class series, and educational lectures through the year. In addition to creating performance opportunities for emerging artists, we also sponsor both the Mary Trueman Vocal Arts Competition and a mentoring program for singers and pianists.

Finally, we share our passion for art song with everyone within our reach: recital and concert performances open to the public; community outreach and music therapy partnerships; and an exciting and informative internet-radio podcast show entitled "A Toast To Song" that has allowed us to expand beyond the New York City area.

“If Music Be The Food of Love, Sing On, Sing On, Sing On!”
ASPS is a beacon of light and an invaluable resource for emerging concert recitalists, piano collaborators, teachers, students, and anyone who cares to witness the pinnacle of artistic beauty. So if you have a genuine interest in the fusion of word and tone, rhythm of language, and the quality and beauty of the human voice, come experience the exuberance and joy of art song singing with The Art Song Preservation Society of New York: where music speaks and words sing!

Give the Gift of Music

If you ever wanted to become a patron of the arts, now is the time! With the rapid decline and tragic loss of many of our country’s finest institutions of the arts, we need your assistance now more than ever to continue being a beacon of light to both musicians and music lovers in New York. The Art Song Preservation Society satisfies an acheing need for resources, and creates unique opportunities to cultivate the beauty of art song education and performance in our community. Please consider giving the gift of music to honor or remember someone you love, or to simply celebrate your joy and appreciation for beautiful music!

Where Does My Donation Go?
All donations made to the Art Song Preservation Society of New York will help us fulfill our missions of preserving, revitalizing, and promoting the art song repertoire and the art song recital. Individual donors help pay for the operational costs, educational and development programs, and community outreach services that grant funding does not cover. Your support will enable us to continue providing a variety of enriching and engaging programs, services, and events that promote the education and performance of classical vocal concert repertoire.

Your Contribution to the Arts is Tax-Deductible!
The Art Song Preservation Society of New York (ASPS) has been incorporated and awarded nonprofit 501(c)(3) status. Financial support is provided by the generosity of individuals who seek to cultivate the talent of musicians interested in the arts. It is only by your donations that we can continue to fulfill our mission of preserving and revitalizing art song. Your gift in the amount that is right for your budget is greatly appreciated!
