

January News and Updates!

We hope you had a wonderful Holiday and Happy New Year! We have some wonderful news to share with you about a couple of recent partnerships. The College Music Society is a new supporter of ASPS and has accepted our proposal for future endorsements of our Summer of Song series! ASPS is also proud to announce our new partnership with ACF (Art du Chant Français). Created by the legendary French tenor, Michel Sénéchal, ACF's mission is to continue the traditions, craft and love of the French vocal arts to the next generation of singers and collaborative pianists. We will continue to keep you updated about these partnerships as well as several new projects that are on the horizon.

The 2013 application for our Summer of Song master classes and the Mary Trueman Competition has been posted on our website. The deadline is April 15th, 2013 for the master classes and August 15th, 2013 for the vocal competition. Get a headstart here: www.ArtSongPreservationSocietyNY.org/2013-asps-master-application.html

Upcoming Workshops held at Opera America (330 Seventh Avenue): The Henri Duparc Master Workshop with Blair Boone, Saturday, March 23, 2013 from 1–4pm and The German Lieder Workshop, Saturday, April 27, 2013 from 1-3pm.
